Abstract

Electricity is a Silent Physician! Many scientists have discovered and proven that cells communicate by subtle electromagnetic frequencies (the brain, the heart, the muscles, the nerves, etc)! They concluded that our bodies are electric! With unhealthy lifestyles and environmental pollutants, free radicals are formed in increasing amounts ... resulting in damage to healthy cells and disruption in intercellular communication. The disease process starts when damaging frequencies or vibrations are stored in cells.

The body has the ability to heal itself of many ailments if it is supplied with sound nutrition and proper cellular energy! This process of rebuilding a new and healthy body is based on the fact the body is constantly replacing itself. Every 7 years, most of the cells of the body have been replaced with new cells! To make new cells, the body must have 1) raw materials from nutrition and 2) sufficient cellular energy to use the materials to build the cells. If any of these 2 components are lacking, any medical treatment, pharmaceutical or supplement will not work. Cells must have enough voltage to work! Human cells are designed to run at a pH of 7.35 which is about -20 millivolts (minus means electrons donor). When voltage is normal, oxygen can enter cells automatically as needed. As oxygen levels decrease, so does health. Chronic disease is associated with a lack of cellular energy.....a loss of voltage!

The most common reasons for a loss of ATP/ADP power include the cell membrane losing its ability to store electrons and/or a depletion of the number of functioning mitochondria. Voltage restores the integrity of the tissue and promote healing. Boosting the electron flow with micro-currents restores cells to a healthier voltage and helps the body to self-regulate and self-heal!

QUEX Biofeedback and Bioresonance Technologies use micro-currents to re-establish the electrical and biochemical functions of the body. Offering over 500 assisted-by-computer therapies, it is the largest Healthcare software package in the world, combining both Eastern and Western philosophies and techniques. These frequency therapies are holistic, personalized, efficient, safe, painless, and drug-free, without side-effects, in harmony with the environment and scientifically based.

Join us in our presentation where we will demonstrate some of the most powerful functionalities of this QUEX Technologies including our technique of Digital Acupuncture!
