On behalf of Lexis Conferences, it is my pleasure to invite all the great scientists, academic people, industrialists as well as researchers from all over the world to attend the 2nd World Wide Congregation on Physics which is going to take place in Rome, Italy during May 25-26, 2020 widely known as Physics 2020.

This conference first started in 2019 and was held in Zurich, Switzerland witnessed 30 attendees with almost 35 talks; continuing the Physics conference is back to back tremendous successes we received a huge response for Physics 2019. Physics conference shared an insight into the recent research and cutting edge technologies in Physics which gained immense interest with the colossal and exuberant presence of adept, young and brilliant researchers, business delegates and talented student communities representing more than 22 countries.

Based upon the strong success of this series of physics conference, a new conference will be held in Rome, Italy. The Physics 2020 meeting's goal is to bring together, once-more, a multi-disciplinary group of scientists and engineers from all over the world to present and exchange break-through ideas relating to the Physics. It seeks to promote top-level research and to globalize quality research in general, thus making discussions, presentations more internationally competitive and focusing attention on the recent outstanding achievements in the field of Physics, and future trends and needs.

We're looking forward to another excellent meeting with great scientists from different countries around the world and sharing new and exciting results in Physics, which will be held in Rome, Italy from May 25-26, 2020. Do not miss out on taking part in this exciting event.

About Venue

The Venue of the conference Rome, Italy makes this event more exciting. The Italy capital is renowned for its excellent varieties of attractions, its flourishing cultural scene and a way of life that's both fast-paced and relaxed. It is one of the most popular touristic destinations in Europe. With its ever-changing life it's hard to keep up with even a fraction of what is going on in the city. Currently, people look to Rome for the latest trends in lifestyle, music and art. Inspired by this outpouring of creativity, growing statistics of artists are arriving in the city from around the world, making it one of Europe's most exciting destinations.
