Awards

The milestone of the conference is to build strong networking with individuals from different countries and exchange the knowledge they have gained in the field of Physiology and Healthcare. After all, Physical Therapy is a field that is growing steadily and has the potential value for the products in the world market. The organization provides a great chance for the experts who seek future in the field of Physiology and shows various applications and possibilities from different minds

The most exciting part of the conference covers the scientific sessions, workshops and symposia. People from the industry also has a vital role to attend the conference to showcase, advertise and Share knowledge. Expos and Exhibitions make the conference livelier and more interactive. Highly affiliated people who attend the summit take the event into a quality international gathering platform to deliver the speech about their experience and accomplishments to the right audience. Conference Series hope this conference can outrun the complications and limitations of Physical Healthcare problems by analysing the current scenario of the field.

Previous Global Summit on 7th International Conference & Exhibition on Physiotherapy & Physical Rehabilitation on March 25-26, 2019 was a successful and rewarding platform for the attendees, based on the theme “The place where the sword of physical therapy meets for better health & fitness solution”. It wouldn't have been possible to succeed without the organizing committee, speakers, delegates, YRFs and the Edinburgh venue staff members, and media partners.

The scientific sessions of the conference include Geriatric Physical Therapy, Neurological Physiotherapy and Rehabilitation, Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation, Manual Physiotherapy Strategies, Manual Physical Therapy Strategies, Case Studies and Reports, etc. Each session contains sub-sessions that comprise most of the topics under Physiotherapy and physical Therapy Rehabilitation. The research work of the speakers will come under either of these sessions to make the conference more organized and mastery. The Physical Therapy Rehabilitation 2020 extends the invitation to the highly affiliated professionals from the academic and business category and the young researchers as well to develop and build their career in the right path. The awards for oral presentations, posters and symposia mould the conference as a unique gathering for the experts across the world to provide the international forum to analyse the research results, new ideas and innovations

Importance of Award Content

Awards can contribute to successful public recognition in the following manner:

- Visibility: Awards can help garner a significant amount of visibility in a certain market or industry, and attract new customers, investors and donors by giving an organization an edge over its competitors.
- Validate: Awards speak volumes about a company's products or services and substantiate their credibility. Even an award nomination can be helpful because it validates a company's leadership in its given market and proves it is ahead of the curve.
- Testimony: Winning an award or even being nominated serves as testament to a company's work ethic, dedication and unique specialty. New customers will likely consider a company or organization's work over another if it has won an award. Furthermore, current customers may view the award as a good thing, reinforcing their loyalty and willingness to share information about a product or service.
- Reputation: An award can improve the perceived reputation of a company to the general public, new customers, donors, investors and the like. Recognition may transform a company's reputation from "pretty good", to excellent.
- Differentiate: An award sets a company apart from competitors and differentiates the quality of its achievements and services from others. An award helps a company stand out for excellence over and above many other agencies and suppliers in the same industry.
