

Effectiveness of traditional medicine and acupuncture on diseases does not have a cure

Sandra Sara Joseph

SDM College of Naturopathy and Yogic Sciences, India

Abstract

When your doctor says your condition has no cure, leaving a trace of hopelessness, No matter how big from a Cancerous growth to as small as a psoriatic lesion. Be it life transforming painless ones like Parkinson's disease or be it life quality threatening radiculopathies. When there is No cure there is still an option that is "TO REVERSE IT". Reversing to a state where there can be minimal symptoms thus Quality of life can be regained.

WE ARE NOT VICTIMS OF OUR GENES BUT THE MASTER OF OUR FATE ~ Bruce H Lipton

Traditional Medicine and Acupuncture working as an adjuvant basis enabling the natural healing mechanisms of the body. As with minimum or No adverse effects which is also cost effective cheap modalities, and using the nature and its elements to help people to have a better life is the ultimate aim. A vast number of research papers and further hard-core studies are done in the fields of Naturopathy, Yoga science, acupuncture, color therapy, magneto-therapy, hydrotherapy and so.

Biography

Sandra Sara Joseph is currently doing her internship in SDM, pursuing 5th year of BNYS course. Expertise in Acupuncture and treated more than 50 conditions within a month. She is also a practitioner of yoga since 5 years. She is in her next step to start with the research project relating Traditional medicine.

15th International Conference on Traditional Medicine and Acupuncture, December 10, 2021

Citation: Sandra Sara Joseph, SDM College of Naturopathy and Yogic Sciences, India, 15th International Conference on Traditional Medicine and Acupuncture, December 10, 2021, 5