

Interesting Cases in Pediatrics

Sanjay Dattatray Wadhe

NMC Specialty Hospital, Dubai, UAE

Abstract

Different case studies are conducted for Pediatrics that include clinical and laboratory findings for group of patients, where 9 different studies was done taking into consideration of different parameters such as a case in Acute hemolysis, dark colored urine with fever, decreased urine output & for evaluation of gross hematuria, gross painless dark colored urine (hematuria), Acute hemorrhagic cystitis caused by adenovirus, fever of 38.5c with tachycardia, mild to moderate dehydration, congested throat with exudate, mild splenomegaly, Henoch Schonlein purpura .The clinical findings are observed for the above parameters in Pediatrics .

Biography:

Sanjay Dattatray Wadhe obtained his MBBS from Mumbai University, India 1987. He later obtained DCH from CPS College, Mumbai. Dr. Sanjay additionally completed MD in Paediatrics from Mumbai University and later completed his MRCPC (UK) in year 2012. Dr. Sanjay has been associated with NMC Specialty Hospital, Al Nahda for more than 10 years. He started his career as a House Officer in Kasturba Hospital, Mumbai in 1988. Dr. Sanjay's special interest includes anemia in children, infection in children, childhood asthma, child development and nephrology.

---

Citation: Sanjay Dattatray Wadhe; Interesting Cases in Pediatrics; Webinar on Pediatrics, April 19, 2021.